USPS Women Cryptologists of WWII Forever Stamp Release: Museum Event

With this stamp, the United States Postal Service honors all of the women cryptologists of World War II whose service played an invaluable role in the Allied victory. The stamp will be released on 18 October at a special event to be held at the Museum.

The stamp art features an image from a World War II-era Women Accepted for Volunteer Emergency Service, or WAVES, recruitment poster with an overlay of characters from the "Purple" code. In the pane selvage, seemingly random letters can be deciphered to reveal some key words. The reverse side of the pane discloses the cipher needed to read the words.
