E-News for our Members, Donors, Partners, & Friends

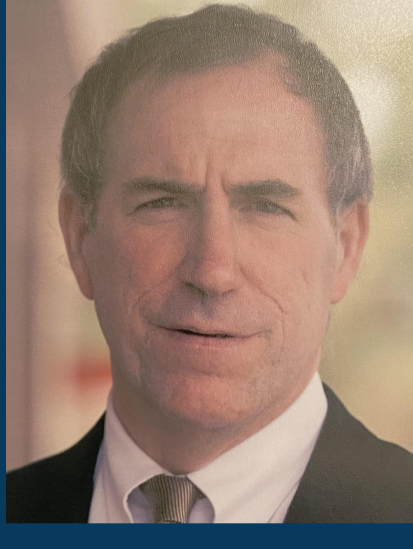

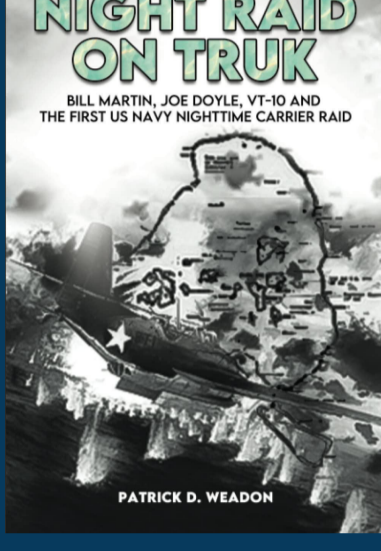

January 2023, Issue 120

Hello Friend - Welcome to the first issue of the NCF Web Link for 2023. As we embark on this new year, we are excited about new programs and initiatives that we hope you will participate in and share with others.

This email includes info about our Winter 2023 Cryptologic Program, as well as news about the launch of our #CyberChats podcast, high praise for our Adult Data Care Booklet, details about a special National Cryptologic Museum exhibit, and much more. A calendar of upcoming events is included at the end of this e-letter.

ADDRESS NOTE - all correspondence for the NCF should be mailed to our office at 808 Landmark Drive, Suite 223, Glen Burnie, MD 21061
(The NCF no longer maintains a Ft. Meade PO Box address.)

NCF 2023 Winter Cryptologic Program: Featuring Patrick Weadon

Join us via Zoom webinar on 22 February 2023 from 1-3pm EST for our Winter 2023 Cryptologic Program.

In addition to news about the National Cryptologic Foundation & National Cryptologic Museum, our guest speaker will be former Museum curator Patrick Weadon, who will speak about his recently published book, "Night Raid on Truk." Registration is required, and donations are appreciated. Signed copies of Pat's book can be purchased with registration.

The NCF Podcast Launches in February!

GREAT NEWS! Our first #CyberChats podcast episode will be released during the week of February 13th!

During the first episode, we will explore how to find out anything about anyone, and our featured guests will be social media spy Eliot Jardines of the OSINT Foundation and Charissa Kim of K-12 Cyber Talk. Each episode will also include a Challenge. Our podcasts will be geared for youth - so please share with family, students, teachers, & friends.

NCF Data Care Booklet for Adults - Featured in Kiplinger's Magazine

Great News! The NCF's data care booklet for adults, "How to be Cyber Safe & Savvy," is featured in Kiplinger's, a top personal finance magazine. You can find the article in the February 2023 issue, in Janet Bodnar's popular column. The booklet is a fantastic resource & we hope you will take an opportunity to download it and/or share with others.
