

Rebecca Fair

Ms. Fair is the Senior Vice President of Information Advantage at Two Six Technologies, a company built to give the US and its allies advantage in the Great Power Competition through products, experts, and R&D.

Rebecca spent a decade as a CIA officer in a variety of roles and has a deep understanding of the national security mission.

She was the CEO and cofounder of Thresher, a software company that measures PRC information operations and was acquired by

Two Six Technologies. She started her career working in Russia at the International Finance Corporation, a division of the World Bank.