

Escape Room in a Box User Agreement

By submitting this request, I certify that I am an authorized representative of my organization and agree to the following terms regarding the National Cryptologic Foundation's (NCF) Escape Room in a Box.

Usage

All content for the Escape Room in a Box is the property of NCF and is protected by copyright law. These materials are made available for informational and educational purposes only. By accessing and using any content or materials, I agree to use it solely for non-commercial, personal, or classroom use, and not to copy, distribute, or modify it without prior written permission.

Care of Materials

I/My organization accepts responsibility for the kit from the time it is received until it is returned to NCF. I/We agree to:

- Handle all materials with reasonable care.
- Supervise participants throughout the activity.
- Keep all kit components together.
- Refrain from altering, reproducing, or permanently marking any materials.
- Report any lost or damaged items promptly.

Return of the Kit

We agree to return the Escape Room in a Box by the date provided by NCF using the supplied return instructions. Before shipment, we will verify that all components have been repacked and included.

If the Escape Room in a Box is not returned by the agreed-upon return date, or if the kit is lost, stolen, or returned with missing or irreparably damaged components, I/we understand and agree that our organization may be assessed a replacement fee of $750, which represents the replacement value of the kit. I/We acknowledge responsibility for the timely return of the complete kit in good condition, excluding normal wear and tear.

Damaged or Missing Materials

Normal wear from appropriate educational use is expected. However, I/My organization understand/s that I/we will be responsible for replacement or repair costs if materials are lost, damaged through misuse or negligence, or not returned.

Safety

I/My organization am/is responsible for providing appropriate supervision and conducting the activity in a safe environment in accordance with my/its own policies and procedures.

Photos and Feedback

I/My organization understand/s that NCF welcomes photos, testimonials, and feedback about our usage of the ERIAB. Any photos or participant information shared with NCF will be submitted only if I have/my organization has obtained the necessary permissions.
